Peace is a daily, a weekly, a monthly process, gradually changing opinions, slowly eroding old barriers, quietly building new structures. Cam comes off as more self assured than he did in the previous book, and that is not really a bad thing Next, Milly isn't the same self assured, strong woman in this book I liked this book, but there were some things that drove me insane. Successful creation of collective energy systems integrated with local communities is strongly connected to supply chain design based on local conditions and stakeholders.
